Dearest Cousin:

I guess you think I have forgotten you, but I haven't. How are you know?

When do you go to Dallas to do your buying? I surely would like to be there when you unpack your hats.

How are Aunt Rankin and Uncle John? How is everyone?

We moved this summer and have been busy all the while. This summer we had a whole lot of ~~things~~.

company. At one time we had seven and another time we had six, but there weren't any kids my size.

Did you put up much fruit this summer?

Mother put up a lot of grape jelly and made some pickle peaches and pickle onions, and a lot of other jelly.

What is Santa bringing you?

I'm going to high school after Christmas.

What is Lorane doing since she finished school? How old is she?

I want to come see you next summer if we can. And

I want to work in your store.

Guess I will close with bushels of love to you ~~and~~ Mama and
Earl send their love.

I am sincerely yours
Mildred Harryman
